

Community Group Homework Questions

1. Review Luke 16:1–13. What is the main point of Jesus’ parable?

2. How should the reality of eternity influence how we use our money in the present?

3. Read Luke 16:9. The principle Jesus teaches in this verse is that we are to use money as a tool to lead people into the kingdom for eternity. How can we practically use our money for the purpose of evangelism?

4. Read Luke 16:12. Pastor Bryan comments, “The reference to ‘that which is another’s’ is probably a reference to God and it was the way for Jesus to say that the money we have actually belongs to God.” The money we possess is not our own. Instead, we are stewards of the money God has entrusted to us. How does this reality influence how we think about and use our money?

5. Read Luke 16:13. How can we ensure that we are using our money to serve God and not simply serving money?

USE MONEY FOR ETERNITY

Luke 16:1-13

Series #92

The following are questions designed to facilitate greater learning and deeper understanding of spiritual truths presented in the sermon: “Use Money For Eternity.” All of the questions are answered as the sermon is presented. We hope that it will be a catalyst to spiritual growth in your life.

1. The confusion we have about Jesus comes from what?
2. What New Testament figure do we see being confused about Jesus?
3. John the Baptizer was not the last child of God to be confused about what?
4. Because of His brilliance and infinite wisdom, Jesus wasn’t what?
5. In today’s passage, is Jesus commending the unjust steward for being unjust or unrighteous?
6. What is the point of the parable that Jesus tells in Luke 16:1-13?
7. The man (steward) had a lot of authority because he was what?
8. Besides a lot of authority & responsibility, the steward also had what?
9. Why did the master not take the stewardship away immediately?
10. Even though the man was dishonest or unjust in the actions he would take, he was doing what?
11. We need to think ahead to eternity and do what on that certain reality?

12. Can you honestly say that the reality of eternity affects the way you live your life today and the way you use your money?
13. The steward called together his master's debtors and agreed to what?
14. Was what the steward did morally or ethically right?
15. The important point Jesus is wanting to drive home is the importance of what?
16. The master commended the unjust steward for his what?
17. What do we learn about the master in the story based upon his response to the unjust steward?
18. Psalm 49 condemns the what?
19. Is there any person in this story who is marked by integrity or honest, moral uprightness?
20. What verse in the parable gives the punchline?
21. In the punchline, Jesus is saying that many unbelievers are what?
22. The way we use our money has what kind of ramifications?
23. Do you give as much thought in planning for eternity as unbelievers give to their future financial stability and prosperity?
24. First we should use money to do what with?
25. Jesus wants us to acquire what?
26. Why does Jesus refer to wealth or money as unrighteousness?
27. A second application of this is what?
28. One of the ways you prove your faithfulness is by what?
29. What is more important than working with and handling money?
30. What verse provides a response to the statement, "...But I worked hard for that money. I earned it"?
31. What do you have that you didn't receive?
32. What is the third application that Jesus gives?
33. If we serve our wealth, we aren't what?
34. What is the correct wording to note in I Timothy 6:10?
35. What has happened to some who have chosen to serve money?
36. You can get sidetracked from the Christian life without what?
37. Are you on the road to defection?
38. What are some things Jesus taught about money?
39. Which do you love and serve: Money or God?