

Be Seeing What You are Hearing

Mark 4:21-29

(series #19)

Intro: Which of our 5 senses is most important?

- Not sight (2nd Corinthians 5:7)
- Not taste (Psalm 34:8)
- Not touch (John 20:17)
- Not smell
- Hearing! - "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

I. The Importance of Understanding vv. 21-25

- A. Those who hear should shine! v. 21
- B. Concealed truth is meant to be shared v. 22
- C. Hear this message! v. 23
- D. Apply yourself to understand v. 24
- E. The axiomatic principle v. 25

II. The Further Explanation of Growth vv. 26-29

- A. The seed is scattered v. 26
- B. The growth takes place mysteriously v. 27
- C. The seed contains life in itself v. 28
 - Js. 1:18; 1st Pet. 1:23; 1st Thess. 2:13
- D. The end-result is a harvest v. 29

Conclusion: These are important truths to understand!