

13. At the heart of Romans 13:8 is the commanded to do what?
14. How is Romans 13:8 different than 12:9-10?
15. What did Jesus say was the greatest commandment?
16. Which is probably more successful: Arguing people into the kingdom or loving them into the kingdom?
17. Is it easy to love non-Christians around you?
18. It is easy for us to slip into what kind of attitude toward non-Christians?
19. What is a good reference to memorize and remember when tempted to be resentful toward non-Christians?
20. Are non-Christians the enemy? If not, what are they?
21. When we love the non-Christian, we are fulfilling what?
22. Does the Bible forbid us from borrowing?
23. When you borrow, you become the lender's what?
24. What often happens to our serving of others when we go into debt?
25. A prudent man sees evil and hides himself, the naive do what?
26. What is Paul saying in Romans 13:8 when he says, "owe no one anything...?"
27. What does love and paying your debts have to do with each other?
28. Few things are a worse testimony than a Christian who doesn't do

- what?
29. What are some things you won't do if you really love your neighbor?
30. The lawyer who approached Jesus in Matthew 22 was an expert in what?
31. How many total commandments did the Jewish religious leaders develop in their legalistic religious system?
32. The lawyer thought that he could stump whom?
33. The question the lawyer asked Jesus was what?
34. In His response, Jesus first quoted from what Old Testament passage?
35. In His response, did Jesus say that the second greatest commandment is like the first commandment?
36. Jesus took what two Old Testament verses and put them together to provide the answer to the lawyer?
37. The command in Leviticus 19 comes at the end of a list of commands about how we are to what?
38. Have you fallen for the popular lie that says you can't love your neighbor until you learn to love yourself first or more?
39. Our problem is what?
40. According to 2 Timothy 3:1-2, difficult times will come because men will be lovers of whom?

41. The command to love your neighbor as you love yourself assumes that we all do what?

42. The person who takes his own life actually loves whom?

43. We are all naturally what?

44. To obey this verse, we need to learn to do what, in relation to ourselves?

45. Describe the kind of love that Paul is writing about?

46. Rather than seeing the law as a mere list of do's and don'ts, we ought to see the fullness of what God intended in His law and that fullness is what?

47. Do you live your life by laws, rules, and regulations? Are you rigid, harsh, and abrasive in your commitment to your rules?

48. What do all of us need in order to love the unloving and those who are unlovable?

Remember: Your responsibility, by God's enabling, is to consistently apply the divine principles and truths you have heard (Philippians 2:12-13; I Timothy 4:7-9; James 1:22-27). As you meditate on this message, ask yourself these questions:

- »»How does God want my beliefs/actions to change?
- »»How can I accomplish this change?
- »»What is the first step toward bringing about this change?

(A Cassette Tape of This Sermon is Available. Order Forms are located in the foyer of the church in the middle entrance).

LOVE FULFILLS THE LAW Romans 13:8-10 (Series #87)

The following are questions designed to facilitate greater learning and deeper understanding of spiritual truths presented in the sermon “Love Fulfills The Law”. All of the questions are answered as the sermon is presented. We hope that it will be a catalyst to spiritual growth in your life.

1. What fulfills the law?
2. In the first eleven chapters of Romans Paul taught us and instructed us and presented to us what?
3. Finish this statement: “To whom much is given, of him will much be _____.”
4. After Paul teaches us doctrinal truth, he then includes what section in his letter?
5. Where does the practical application portion of Romans begin?
6. What, according to Romans 12:1-2, is our responsibility in relation to God?
7. According to Romans 12:3-16, our responsibility to the church is we are to do what?
8. Are you faithful to your responsibility to the church?
9. What are we supposed to do in relation to our enemies?
10. Chapter 13 is about how we are to live in the midst of a what?

11. We are to do what in relation or our government?

12. The book of Romans is a systematic presentation of what?