

Whoever means Whoever

Romans 10:11-13

(series #71)

Introduction: man-made solutions for sin and salvation

They underestimate the sinfulness of mankind

They overestimate man's ability to remedy his situation

They de-value the work of Christ on the cross

I. Whoever believes will not be put to shame v. 11

A. Whoever trusts Christ need never fear

B. Whoever trusts in anything else ought to fear

1. - Revelation 20:11

II. For there is no distinction v. 12

A. All of mankind is equally condemned - Rom.
1:18-3:20

B. Anyone and everyone in Christ is new - II Cor. 5:17

C. All are one in Christ Jesus - Galatians 3:28

III. Whoever calls on the Lord will be saved v. 13

A. There are false professions of faith - Matthew 7:21-23

B. Words aren't the issue, God sees the heart - Lk.
18:9-14

IV. Conclusion: The Character of Saving Faith - John

1:12

1. "F" - Facts

2. "A" - Agreement

3. "I" - Internalization

4. "T" - Trust

5. "H" - Hope