

11. Romans 8:35 is saying that although we might experience difficulties and tragedies in life that doesn't mean what?
12. Circumstances can never separate us from God's what?
13. How do we know that God is with us?
14. How many "negatives" in the Greek language are in Hebrews 13:5?
15. What God is saying in Hebrews 13:5 is, "I will never, never, never, never, never..." do what?
16. Why does God say that so many times and so strongly?
17. What should we base our theology upon?
18. What is something we should never, ever judge?
19. Naomi and her family had left their homeland because of what?
20. Naomi and her family settled in what land?
21. After Naomi's husband and sons died, why did she decide to return to Bethlehem?
22. Which daughter-in-law insisted upon returning to Bethlehem with Naomi?
23. Because of Ruth's devotion to God, who else was she devoted to?
24. When the two of them arrived in Bethlehem, Ruth took the initiative to care for Naomi by doing what?
25. In the providence of God, the field that Ruth gleaned in belonged to who?
26. Fill in the blanks: "There was a practice in those days, based on the law of God given to Moses, that a close relative could _____ a family member who had been sold into slavery, or land which needed to be sold under economic hardship, and/or the family name by virtue of a _____ marriage."
27. The person who carried out this redeeming act was called what?
28. The one problem with Boaz being the Kinsman-Redeemer was what?
29. Where did official, legal business transactions take place?
30. What did the closer relative decide to do?
31. What was the way that people signed a contract back then?
32. Why did the people bring up the sordid story of Tamar and Judah on this occasion with Boaz and Ruth?
33. Who was the main ancestor of the Ephrathites and Bethlehemites?
34. Why did the woman speaking in verse 17 say that there was a son born to Naomi if Ruth was the mother?
35. Who is the main character of this book?
36. This story is about what?
37. Boaz and Ruth have a son who is the grandfather of who?
38. A future king in the line of David would also be who?

39. What do we sinners need most?
40. In the genealogy of our Lord in Matthew, whose name is listed?
41. Why could we almost say that the story of Ruth is a rags-to-riches story?
42. What is one thing that you are not when you belong to God as one of His children?
43. Is there every anything that is insignificant in your life as a Christian?
44. Paul says that whether we are eating, drinking or whatever we are doing we are to do what?
45. What do we learn historically from the book of Ruth and what is one application to you?
46. What is the doctrinal lesson how does it apply to today?
47. What do we learn about morals from Ruth and how does it apply?
48. What is the theological lesson learned from the book of Ruth and how does it apply to us?

Remember: Your responsibility, by God's enabling, is to consistently apply the divine principles and truths you have heard (Philippians 2:12-13; I Timothy 4:7-9; James 1:22-27). As you meditate on this message, ask yourself these questions:

- »»How does God want my beliefs/actions to change?
- »»How can I accomplish this change?
- »»What is the first step toward bringing about this change?

(A Cassette Tape of This Sermon is Available. Order Forms are located in the foyer of the church in the middle entrance)

FROM RAGS TO RICHES Ruth 4

The following are questions designed to facilitate greater learning and deeper understanding of spiritual truths presented in the sermon “From Rags To Riches-Ruth 4” All of the questions are answered as the sermon is presented. We hope that it will be a catalyst to spiritual growth in your life.

1. What is one of the most important aspects of the Christian life?
2. God always gives us what?
3. In Matthew 11, who is beginning to doubt whether Jesus is the Messiah?
4. Why was John the Baptizer doubting whether Jesus was the Messiah?
5. What was the essence of Jesus' response to the two disciples who came from John the Baptizer?
6. Matthew 11:6 is saying, “Blessed is the person who does not do what...”
7. What is the hardest prayer to pray?
8. The people of Hebrews 11 were great heroes of faith for what reason?

9. What is one area from which we should never get our theology?
10. Does the fact that Lazarus got sick and died mean that Jesus didn't love him?