

11. The Corinthians were enamored with what?
12. Are you?
13. Paul knew that the Corinthian believers would never grow out of their spiritual immaturity if they didn't have the right view about what?
14. Does God have any foolishness or weakness? If not, why does Paul allude to that in these verses?
15. What did Paul refuse to compromise?
16. What is a contemporary illustration of the people of God being willing to trade God's wisdom for man's wisdom?
17. What has, unfortunately, made in-roads into the church?
18. According to Lang, schizophrenia was non-existent until what?
19. Have you, in any way, bought into the bankrupt psychology and psychotherapy movement?
20. What is a second illustration, of how people turn from God's wisdom to something else, to deal with their problems?
21. Many people use anti-depressants, not because they have to, but because they aren't what?
22. There are a lot of people who use what to try to solve their spiritual problems
23. Is it always wrong to use medications for depression? When is it okay?
24. If a person thinks man's wisdom is superior to God's wisdom he is woefully what?
25. Human intelligence and human wisdom are worthless when it comes to what?
26. The Corinthians were failing to realize that all God's necessary provisions were given to all of them for what?
27. The Corinthian believers had the privilege to learn from whose ministry?
28. The day is coming when the people of God will inherit what?
29. From verse 22, what does Paul mention in this list, which seems like a strange one to list, but is also given to us by God?
30. Even death is given to us by God as an opportunity to do what?
31. I Timothy tells us that God gave us all things to do what?
32. "...or things to come..." is a reference to what?
33. All true believers belong to Christ and therefore we all belong to whom?

34. What might be the greatest incentive to unity that there is?

For further reading on the bankrupt system of psychology and psychotherapy, check out books and tapes available in our Biblical Counseling Resource Library in church library.

Suggested Reading: Psychobabble, by Dr. Richard Ganz; Why Christians Can't Trust Psychology, by Ed Bulkley; Our Sufficiency In Christ, by John MacArthur; Addicted To Recovery, by Gary Almy; and The Christian Counselor's Medical Desk Reference, by Dr. Bob Smith. (To name a few).

Remember: Your responsibility, by God's enabling, is to consistently apply the divine principles and truths you have heard (Philippians 2:12-13; I Timothy 4:7-9; James 1:22-27). As you meditate on this message, ask yourself these questions:

- »»How does God want my beliefs/actions to change?
- »»How can I accomplish this change?
- »»What is the first step toward bringing about this change?

For Next Week:

- 1) Read I Corinthians 1:1-4:5 through at least once this week.
- 2) What are some ways that you have seen in your own life how you were self-deceived?
- 3) Memorize and meditate on Romans 12:3 this week and think about how it applies to you.
- 4) How does I Corinthians 4:1-5 tie in with the section that precedes it (going clear back to chapter 1 verse 10)?
- 5) What does it mean to be a steward? Usually the word, "stewardship" is connected only to what issue?
- 6) Think about all of your possession, talents, gifts, blessings, etc. Evaluate how good of a steward you are of those things throughout this week and discuss with a friend the issue of stewardship with all facets of life.

(A Cassette Tape of This Sermon is Available. Order Forms are located in the foyer of the church in the middle entrance)

God's Wisdom or Man's Wisdom

I Corinthians 3:18-23

(Series #14)

The following are questions designed to facilitate greater learning and deeper understanding of spiritual truths presented in the sermon "God's Wisdom or Man's Wisdom" All of the questions are answered as the sermon is presented. We hope that it will be a catalyst to spiritual growth in your life.

1. What did the people of God want when Isaiah said what he said in Isaiah 31:1?
2. Some of the people looked for help in what country?
3. Instead of turning to the Lord, the fountain of living waters, we often turn to what?
4. The church in Galatia was tempted to turn to what for their governing principle of life?
5. The church in Colosse was tempted to turn to what for their direction in life?
6. What was the Hebrew church tempted to turn back to for their lifestyle and system of worship?
7. The church in Corinth was trading divine wisdom for what?
8. The primary focus of I Corinthians 1:10-4:21 is what problem?
9. To cause rifts in the church by forcing people to side with one group over another is a sign of what?
10. Elevating one leader over another is a sign of spiritual what?

*To help protect the quality of recording the sermon, we ask that you quietly turn to the inside of this study guide. Thank you! We appreciate your help.