31. Again, what is Paul talking about in verse 13 when he talks about not doing anything to cause a brother (or sister) to stumble?

32. What is a mark of selflessness and genuine love for others when it comes to "gray issues"?

33. Is your love for your brothers and sisters in Christ as giving and sacrificial as Paul's?

34. Is your love for the Lord Jesus Christ so strong that you are willing to be selfless?

Remember: Your responsibility, by God's enabling, is to consistently apply the divine principles and truths you have heard (Philippians 2:12-13; I Timothy 4:7-9; James 1:22-27). As you meditate on this message, ask yourself these questions:

- »>How does God want my beliefs/actions to change?
- »>How can I accomplish this change?
- »>What is the first step toward bringing about this change?

For Next Week:

1) Read I Corinthians 1:1-9:12 through at least once this week.

2) As you read through 9:1-12, think about how Paul's statements fit the expression, "caught between a rock and a hard place."

3) Discuss with a friend this week, what your "rights" are. Think outside of the box of being an American to more specifically, your rights or your freedoms as a Christian. Ponder whether you are really willing to give those rights up if you needed to.

4) In what ways have you allowed your rights, freedoms, and liberties to become more important to you than the cause of Christ?

(A cassette tape of this sermon is available. Order forms are located in the foyer of the church in the middle entrance)
