

9. If you, as a child of God lack self-discipline and allow yourself to be drawn into sin, you put yourself into what position?
10. What were some of the privileges and blessings Israel had experienced?
11. Who were the only two, out of all the millions of Israelites who were blessed, to enter the Promised Land?
12. Paul tells us that we should not lust after what?
13. What is the first thing that Paul mentions that comes natural to us?
14. What is it called when we conjure up in our minds a view of God that is inaccurate and distorted and we embrace that view?
15. What are some examples of “idolatry” in our time, as it relates to a view of God?
16. Do you value something as more important than God in your life?
17. What are some examples of things that we value more than God?
18. From verse 7, another form of idolatry is what?
19. What is the second thing that Paul mentions that comes natural to us?
20. Why did Paul not use the Greek word that refers specifically and only to adultery?
21. As a consequence of the sexual immorality, how many Israelites died?
22. Are you involved in any form of sexual immorality?
23. If God doesn’t discipline you, then you aren’t what?
24. What is the third thing that Paul mentions that comes natural to us?
25. What was the specific sin that Israel committed in Numbers 21:4-8?
26. What is the fourth thing that Paul mentions that comes natural to us?
27. What did the men, Korah, Dathan, and Abiram do?
28. What happened to all of the men complaining about Moses and Aaron?
29. How many Israelites died because of their murmuring and complaining?
30. What kind of spirit is a grievous attitude before God?
31. Who was the “destroyer” referred to in I Corinthians 10:10?
32. God recorded all of these events and incidents in Israel’s history for whom?
33. God recorded these events for us so that we might do what?

34. Do you discipline your body?

35. Are you walking too close to the line? Are you overconfident in yourself believing that you are above some sin?

Remember: Your responsibility, by God's enabling, is to consistently apply the divine principles and truths you have heard (Philippians 2:12-13; I Timothy 4:7-9; James 1:22-27). As you meditate on this message, ask yourself these questions:

- »>How does God want my beliefs/actions to change?
- »>How can I accomplish this change?
- »>What is the first step toward bringing about this change?

For Next Week:

- 1) Read I Corinthians 1:1-10:13 through at least once this week.
- 2) Give some thought to the dangers of being overconfident. What are some examples of what happened to people who were overconfident throughout history?
- 3) Give some time to ponder/meditate on I Corinthians 10:12 and 13 and think about how these two verses apply to your life as you daily battle sin.

(A cassette tape of this sermon is available. Order forms are located in the foyer of the church in the middle entrance)

EXAMPLES NOT TO FOLLOW
I Corinthians 10:7-11
(Series #37)

The following are questions designed to facilitate greater learning and deeper understanding of spiritual truths presented in the sermon "Examples Not To Follow" All of the questions are answered as the sermon is presented. We hope that it will be a catalyst to spiritual growth in your life.

1. The Holy Spirit knows our tendency to walk as close to the line as we possibly can assuming what about ourselves?
2. Paul reminds the Corinthian believers of events in the history of Israel that serve as what to the Corinthians and to us?
3. What issue does Paul begin to discuss in I Corinthians 8?
4. Paul's basic point is that we should be willing to set aside our freedoms and liberties when it will do what?
5. In Corinthians 9:24-27, Paul challenged the Corinthian believers (and us) to do what?
6. Paul's aim or mission in life was to be the most effective Christian he could possibly be for what?
7. If we don't live life the way Paul challenges us to, we won't receive what?
8. Was it possible for the Apostle Paul to be disqualified from rewards?

**To help protect the quality of recording the sermon, we ask that you quietly turn to the inside of this study guide. Thank you! We appreciate your help.