

10. Paul began discussing what issue in chapter 8?
11. Paul's basic point was: Be willing to set aside what for the cause of Christ?
12. What right had Paul set aside as an example for them?
13. What do we know about Paul from reading I Corinthians 9:24-27?
14. Paul indicates that if we don't exercise self-discipline or self-denial when necessary, we are in danger of being what?
15. In I Corinthians 10:1-11, Paul's use of the example of the Israelites serves as a warning about being what?
16. Who were the only two of the incredibly blessed Israelites to enter the Promised Land?
17. How does Paul respond to the potential of someone who reads about the examples and says, "I would never do something like that?"
18. We should not assume that because we might be a redeemed child of God that we can't do what?
19. "Self" wants to be and do what?
20. Christian: Do you live by your wants and by what comes natural?
21. What is Paul referring to when he uses the word, "fall," in verse 12?
22. When Paul wrote the words in Philippians 3:12, he had been pursuing righteousness and Christ-likeness for how many years?
23. There is no room for what in our lives?
24. What is something we don't have to do?
25. Some Christians resign themselves to the assumption that their walk with Christ is going to be what?
26. Do you have that perspective?
27. Verse 13 shoots holes in the tendency we have to justify our sin and excuse our sin by saying things such as what?
28. When it comes to sin, we are never what?
29. Our temptations are common to man, which means they are what?
30. We all have the same battles with things such as what?
31. What does I Corinthians 10:13 remind us about God?
32. God will never allow us to be tempted beyond what?
33. With any and every temptation, there is always a what?
34. Sometimes the path to victory (the escape involves) what:
  - a. R _____
  - b. R _____
  - c. R _____
  - d. R _____
  - e. R _____

35. I Corinthians 10:13 forces us to face the fact that when we sin it is because of what?

36. We don't have to resign ourselves to what kind of mind-set?

Remember: Your responsibility, by God's enabling, is to consistently apply the divine principles and truths you have heard (Philippians 2:12-13; I Timothy 4:7-9; James 1:22-27). As you meditate on this message, ask yourself these questions:

- »>How does God want my beliefs/actions to change?
- »>How can I accomplish this change?
- »>What is the first step toward bringing about this change?

For Next Week:

- 1) Read I Corinthians 1:1-10:22 through at least once this week.
- 2) What does idolatry have to do with the context of 10:1-13?
- 3) Why would Paul warn the believers to flee from idolatry?
- 4) What "idols of the heart" do you see in your own life (Idols can be discovered by finishing statements such as: "I would be happy if..." or "If only..." or "For me to live is...." or "I would be content if....").
