

9. The hearts of the believers in Corinth, as they pursued the showing gift of tongues, were NOT spurred on or motivated by what?
10. Their hearts were focused on what?
11. What is the opposite of a focus on self?
12. Although the English translations of I Corinthians 13:4-7 make it appear that most of the descriptions of love are adjectives, in the Greek text they are what?
13. What is iniquity and why does love NOT rejoice in it?
14. What are some ways that people/Christians rejoice in their iniquity?
15. What is a way that we can actually be rejoicing in the iniquity of others?
16. Another aspect of rejoicing in iniquity is when we are glad to hear about what?
17. Another way we are guilty of rejoicing in iniquity is by the sin of what?
18. Love rejoices with what?
19. True love desires our children to do what?
20. In essence the Ecumenical Movement believes what about love and truth?
21. 2nd John 6 says, “And this is love, that we walk after...” what?
22. Love notices what in other people’s lives?
23. The phrase, “love bears all things,” means what?
24. Love is willing to go the extra mile to pass over what in silence?
25. I Peter 4:8 tells us that love covers what?
26. To say that “...love believes all things...” simply means that love does what?
27. Does it mean that if you believe the best in others that your love for them is blind?
28. What are we supposed to extend to others?
29. The classic example of the opposite of believing all things was whom?
30. Job’s friends couldn’t figure out an explanation for Job’s suffering so what did they conclude?
31. Love believes the best about the other person, but there are times when the facts are there that the other person isn’t living in such a way to give us reason to believe a lot of good. What do we do then?
32. Love refuses to take failure as what?
33. What does “love endure?”
34. What is God’s Word NOT saying when it says that love endures all things?
35. If you have a spouse who is being immoral and unfaithful, God doesn’t say that the right response is simply to do what?

36. If we don't love, then all of our accomplishments in life will be seen as what?

37. How is your epitaph going to read?

Remember: Your responsibility, by God's enabling, is to consistently apply the divine principles and truths you have heard (Philippians 2:12-13; I Timothy 4:7-9; James 1:22-27). As you meditate on this message, ask yourself these questions:

- »»How does God want my beliefs/actions to change?
- »»How can I accomplish this change?
- »»What is the first step toward bringing about this change?

For Next Time:

- 1) Read I Corinthians 1:1-13:10 through one time this week.
- 2) Read I Corinthians 13:1-10 each day this week and give some consideration to your life and how it matches up with God's description of love.
- 3) What is one thing that the three members of the triune Godhead have always done?
- 4) What does Paul say will happen to the gifts of knowledge and tongues?

(A cassette tape of this sermon is available. Order forms are located in the foyer of the church in the middle entrance)

LOVE DOES I Corinthians 13:6-7 (Series #53)

The following are questions designed to facilitate greater learning and deeper understanding of spiritual truths presented in the sermon "Love Does" All of the questions are answered as the sermon is presented. We hope that it will be a catalyst to spiritual growth in your life.

1. What parts of the Bible bothered Mark Twain?
2. The hardest parts of the Bible are the ones that very clearly tell us what?
3. Because we fall short in the area of love, we can be like the lawyer who wanted to justify himself in the face of Jesus by asking what question?
4. The lawyer understood the answer that Jesus had given but the answer did what?
5. What portion of Scripture is one of the most popular portions in all the Word of God?
6. The Corinthian church was really into what?
7. What were some of the wrong reasons for why the Corinthian believers were really into spiritual gifts?
8. Many of them wanted what dramatic, flamboyant gift?

*To help protect the quality of recording the sermon, we ask that you quietly turn to the inside of this study guide. Thank you! We appreciate your help.