

A Ping-pong Prisoner

Acts 25:13-27

(series #94)

Introduction:

Our belief in the truth of II Timothy 3:16

Interesting factors about the accusations against Paul

They were often general without specifics

They sometimes had some truth but were twisted

Some of the accusers wouldn't face Paul

They couldn't prove their accusations

The background of Agrippa and Bernice v. 13

Agrippa's full title was Herod Agrippa II

He was the great-grandson of Herod the Great - Matt.
2

He was the son of the Herod Agrippa I - chapter 12

Bernice was his sister and so was Drusilla (24:24)

The Summary of Paul's Case vv. 14-22

The Setting for Paul's Defense vv. 23-27

The pageantry of the occasion v. 23

The customary introduction vv. 24-27

Concluding application: Romans 8:28