

14. In verse 27, Daniel affirms the emptiness of what?
15. It is interesting that Daniel referred to the God who is in heaven because the Babylonians believed that all of their gods came from where?
16. Did Daniel take some of the credit for himself?
17. Daniel begins the interpretation of the dream by asserting what?
18. Who had made Nebuchadnezzar the great king that he was?
19. What element did God use to represent Babylon?
20. The kingdom to follow the kingdom of Babylon was what kingdom?
21. What two kingdoms came together in 550 B.C. under king Cyrus and eventually defeated Babylon?
22. Why was silver an appropriate representation of the Medo-Persian Empire?
23. Why was the Medo-Persian empire inferior to Babylon?
24. When did the Medo-Persian empire conquer Babylon?
25. The third world-empire represented in the dream was what empire?
26. When did the Grecian empire conquer the Medo-Persian empire?
27. Why did God choose to use bronze to represent the Grecian empires?
28. The fourth empire pictured in the dream was what empire?
29. The Western Roman Empire had what city as its capital? The Eastern Empire had what city for its capital?
 - a. Western=
 - b. Eastern=
30. Why was iron used to represent the Roman empire?
31. This part of the prophecy was fulfilled when?
32. The ten toes of the statue in the dream indicate that it will be a confederation of what?
33. The man who heads up the revived Empire will be so cruel and wicked that the book of Revelation refers to him as the what?
34. We commonly refer to the future world ruler (who is a composite of all world rulers) as what?
35. As we approach Revelation 13, we are looking at what part of the future 7 year tribulation?
36. While God pours out His wrath on the earth, Satan is going to be trying to destroy who?
37. Satan will try to establish his kingdom on earth with his man, known as who?
38. The crowns on the horns of the beast in Rev. 13:1, show the what?
39. Who or what is the beast described in Revelation 13?
40. In Daniel 7, the leopard (in Daniel's dream) represents what kingdom?
41. The bear represents what kingdom?
42. What animal is used to represent Babylon?
43. Where will the beast of Revelation 13 get his power?
44. According to Revelation 13:10, the beast will have power over what?
45. According to verses 16-17, the beast will have power over what?
46. From world history we learn that the circumstances that will allow the beast to gain so much influence and rise to such a powerful position will be what?

47. What are some possible reasons that there will be chaos, allowing the Antichrist to rise to power?

48. What are the two options for the meaning of verse 3?

49. It is possible that a counterfeit what will be a part of the lie that gets people to follow the beast?

50. Not only does the word “Antichrist” mean against Christ, it also means what?

51. What will the world do in relation to worship during this time?

52. What question is asked in Exodus 15:11 and Micah 7:18?

53. The final kingdom will not be a Satanic kingdom, but rather a what?

54. In Daniel 2:45, the stone is undoubtedly who?

55. In the days of the Revived Roman Empire, what will Jesus do?

56. What will human history climax with?

57. Will you be a part of that kingdom?

58. What is the only way to be a part of that kingdom?

For The Next Study In Revelation:

1) Read through Revelation 1:1-13:2-4 one time.

2) Read Revelation 13:5-10 each day this week and make some notes about some observations you make in these verses about what is happening.

3) Formulate questions from your reading that you would like to have answered.

THE COMING BEAST

Revelation 13:2-4

Series #32

The following are questions designed to facilitate greater learning and deeper understanding of spiritual truths presented in the sermon on “The Coming Beast”. All of the questions are answered as the sermon is presented. We hope that it will be a catalyst to spiritual growth in your life.

1. How many years did it take for the Grecian Empire to conquer the world, under Alexander the Great?

2. How old was Alexander when he had conquered the world?

3. What did Alexander sit down and do after he conquered the world?

4. Who was the first monarch to rule the world and what empire was he the king of?

5. Where do we go in Scripture to learn about Nebuchadnezzar’s dream that tells how the history of mankind would unfold?

6. What did Nebuchadnezzar have that bothered him so much that he couldn’t sleep?

7. In the Orient, if a person forgot a dream it meant what?

8. What was suppose to be the result of the wise men not knowing the dream?

9. In former days God chose to speak through what?

10. What New Testament chapter tells us that God doesn’t speak to us today in dreams and visions?

11. Instead of rushing to tell the king what his dream was, Daniel takes time to do what?

12. As we read through Daniel's prayer, we notice Daniel's what?

13. Why was Daniel so courageous and so confident in this situation (and others)?